Church Vision

"Building People; Mind, Body, and Spirit." (Matthew 28:16-20)

Pastor's Welcome

I greet all of you in the name of our Savior Jesus Christ. Welcome to the fellowship of the Oakey Grove Baptist Church in beautiful Evans, Georgia. Thank you in advance for partnering with us in reaching the world for Jesus Christ through the spreading of the Gospel.

The primary objective of every Bible believing Church is the fulfillment of the Great Commission from Matthew 28:16-20. Here at Oakey Grove, we are marching forward and fulfilling Jesus's mandate through the operative vision. Our vision here at Oakey Grove is "Building People, mind, body, and spirit." This vision guides the development of relevant ministries that intentionally make disciples within the context of the local church. Here at "the Grove," we are continuously seeking souls and we are entirely open to the Lord's leading in leveraging every available biblical resource for developing them.

I invite you and your family to join us in prayer for all humanity, and to come and share with us in worship and the study of God's Word whenever you have the opportunity. Let's believe God together that the Lord of the harvest will send more laborers into His vineyard. I personally pray that you accept Jesus Christ as your Savior (Romans 10:9-10), and that you abide in His love and the koinonia of the brethren. May He continuously bless and keep us all in His care until He comes.

Be Blessed

Rev. Rex E. Wright

CHURCH COVENANT

Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Savior, and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God, angels, and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ. We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge and holiness; to give it a place in our affections, prayers and services above every organization of human origin; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline and doctrine; to contribute cheerfully and regularly, as God has prospered us, towards its expenses, for the support of a faithful and evangelical ministry among us, the relief of the poor and the spread of the Gospel throughout the world. In case of difference of opinion in the church, we will strive to avoid a contentious spirit, and if we cannot unanimously agree, we will cheerfully recognize the right of the majority to govern. We also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to study diligently the Word of God; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintance; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be kind and just to those in our employ, and faithful in the service we promise to others; endeavoring in the purity of heart and good will towards all men to exemplify and commend our holy faith. We further engage to watch over, to pray for, to exhort and stir up each other unto every good word and work; to guard each other's reputation, not needlessly exposing the infirmities of others; to participate in each other's joys and with tender sympathy bear one another's burdens and sorrows; to cultivate Christian courtesy; to be slow to give or take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, being mindful of the rules of the Savior in the 18th Chapter of Matthew, to secure it without delay; and through life, amid evil report, and good report, to seek to live to the glory of God, who hath called us out of darkness into His marvelous light. When we remove from this place, we engage as soon as possible to unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's word.
